

ARE YOU PAYING TOO MUCH FOR PROPERTY TAX?

New Jersey law requires that your property taxes be assessed against the market value of your real estate. Does the assessed value on your tax bill reflect the present market value of your property? If not, then you are paying too much and you have the right to file a

TAX APPEAL

FIND OUT WHY NOW IS THE BEST TIME TO CONSIDER A TAX APPEAL
FOR 2011.

CALL FOR A FREE CONSULTATION.

John J. Coughlin, Attorney at Law, LLC
800 N. Church St. Moorestown NJ 08057
(856) 996-1170
john@jccoughlinlaw.com

Legal counsel is available to gather evidence and present arguments from a N.J. Certified General Appraiser. In many cases the cost of an appeal can be just a fraction of your future property tax bill savings.

These statements are not guarantees and are not intended to convey legal advice. This is a paid advertisement for services.